Here's your chance to celebrate church library ministry with people from around the country! Join us on November 6-8, 2008 for CELEBRATE CHURCH LIBRARY MINISTRY! the National Church Library Association (NCLA) national biennial conference in Bloomington, Minnesota.

Don't miss out! This special event is only held every two years!

You'll meet hundreds of church librarians searching for new resources, new ideas, education, inspiration, and networking opportunities.

The 2008 conference features:

- ★ Keynote speakers that will inspire, motivate, and challenge your thinking!
- ★ Over 40 Workshops planned just for you, including cataloging/weeding, programming ideas, publicity to promote your library, new resources for all ages, computer/web resources, current trends, revitalizing an existing library, copyright basics, strategic planning, and more!
- ★ Exhibits that showcase a multitude of books and other resources to add to your library shelves, library automation computer software you can test drive, specialty items and gifts. You're sure to meet the Authors who will be on hand to autograph and sell copies of their latest books.
- ★ Door Prizes that you're sure to enjoy!
- ★ Special events for those who arrive early on November 6.
- ★ Special activities to celebrate the 50th birthday of NCLA!

Best of all.... Friendship, Fellowship and Networking Opportunities await you!

Conference registration materials will arrive in your mailbox on or around June 1, 2008.

- ★ Save the date and start making plans now so you won't miss out. Register by September 30 for lowest tuition rates: $210 (both days) or $120(one day).
- ★ Group discounts! Bring your library committee and save up to $50 for each person in your group!
- ★ Watch for the more details in the next issue of Libraries Alive or contact the NCLA office for more information. Call (651)-430-0770 or email info@churchlibraries.org or visit www.churchlibraries.org

See you there!
